First Place Is Won By Xavier

SAME POSITION NOW HELD FOR THREE YEARS

Three Places Are Won In English And In Latin Contests

Xavier is again victorious! Living up to that characteristic Xavier spirit the University has again this year won the highest rating in the combined tallies of both the Intercollegiate Latin and English Contests.

In the past two years Xavier has had the same record. Last year she came in first with the highest rating of the two contests. Vincent Eckstein took a place in English, John Winstel placed sixth in the Intercollegiate English Contest of that year, and Louis Ginochio won a place in Latin.

The year 1931 found Xavier again leading in points for the two contests. John Winstel, this year, won first place in the Latin Contest, while Louis Ginochio also won a place.

And now in 1933, Xavier again is victorious with the highest number of points. She has lived up to her splendid records of past years in attaining intellectual scholastic achievements.

John Winstel, member of the senior class, in the College of Liberal Arts, in 1931 placed first in Latin; 1932 he won a place in English; and this year won a place in English.

Louis Ginochio, member of the senior class, has won a place in the Intercollegiate Latin Contests for the past three years.

Vincent Eckstein, Sophomore, won a place in English during his Freshman year, while this year he led the Xavier boys in the Intercollegiate English Contest, and also won 5th place in this year's Latin Contest.

According to regulations, only three papers for each contest are permitted to be submitted. The three papers submitted by Xavier in English, and the three submitted for Latin have all taken places in the contest. All of the Jesuit Colleges and Universities of the Middle West compete in the Intercollegiate Contests.

DANTE CLUB CLOSES SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Donovan, McDermott And Dewan To Be Graduated In June

The Xavier University Dante Club closed a successful season last Sunday night, May 14, with the presentation of its lecture on "Dante's Divine Comedy," at St. Mary's Hospital, Betts Street. The lecture was delivered by John Brink, Raymond McCoy and John Snyder, before an audience of several hundred Sisters, Nurses, and patients of the hospital.

In spite of the trying times, a total of twenty-two appearances were made by the Dante Club this year before high school, academy, club, church, and hospital groups. Representatives journeyed to Cleveland, Ohio, and Louisville, Lexington, and Nazareth in Kentucky, besides appearing in most of the cities of Greater Cincinnati on both sides of the river.

Three experienced members, Charles Donovan, President, Lawrence McDermott, Business Manager, and James Dewan will be graduated in June, but eight seasoned juniors and sophomores will be left to carry on the Club's work.

Officers of the Dante Club, together with the moderator, Rev. John V. Usher, S. J., are being congratulated by their fellow members for overcoming unusual handicaps to make the 1932-33 season one of the best in the twelve years of the organization's existence.

WEEK-END FILLED WITH "X" NETMEN CONTESTS

Xavier University netmen are to meet three opponents within four days, Louis Ginochio, Xavier tennis captain announced. This afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock, the racquetters will be hosts to Wittenberg College on the Corcoran Field Tennis Courts. Saturday, at Delaware, Ohio, Xavier plays Ohio Wesleyan, and Sunday, the Mariemont Tennis Club will appear at Corcoran Field.

Xavier's lineup for this afternoon's contest will include Graf Moeller, no. 1 man, Louis Ginochio, Henry Schoo, Thomas Schmidt, John Jeffre, and James Dorsey. Pairings for the doubles will be Ginochio with Jeffre, Moeller with Schoo, and Dorsey with Schmidt.

OFFICE ASSUMED BY STUDENT COUNCILMEN

Joint Meeting Held By Retiring And Newly Elected Members

Absent from meeting: Farrell, Dewan, Mueller, and Koester.

"We want to keep things going," Thus Kenneth P. Jordan inaugurated his year as President of the new Student Council after retiring President Edward Nurre had transferred to him the gavel at the combined meeting of new and old members in the Biology Building last Thursday evening.

Before this Nurre had thanked the moderator, Father A. J. Gallagher, and the old members of the organization for their co-operation during the past year. He extended a hearty welcome to the new members.

A committee composed of Edward Nurre and Jack Hughes, was appointed to accompany Band President John P. Roach in an interview with President Stoetmyer in an effort to clear up the difficulties concerning band awards which have caused some confusion.

The Council decided that it would attend the graduation en masse to serve as ushers. They also arranged the remaining details concerning the design of the Epsilon Xi Lambda Keys which it will distribute at graduation.

It was the last meeting for Harry Landenweh, Edward Nurre, Louis Ginochio, Ervin Stadler, and James Dewan the senior members of the Council and for the members who failed of reelection while for Joseph Podesta, Walter Moellering, Jack Mulvihill, and Paul Barrett, it was the first session.

LAST MEETING OF TAVERNERS HELD

Members Will Assemble Monthly During Summer; To Procure Pins

Holding their final meeting of the year, the Mermaid Tavern members gathered at their private meeting place, Flinn Lodge, Tuesday night, and had one of the most interesting meetings of the university year.

John Snyder read his prose character description entitled "Grandmother." After the reading of the papers by the Tavern members a picnic was arranged for next Tuesday at Priarhurst. Selections were made for the Taverners' pins which are to be purchased in the near future.

In order that the members of the Tavern will not neglect using their spare time during the summer vacation, it was decided by the members that meetings will be held once every four weeks, so that in case a member has written some piece of work during the month he will be able to bring it to the Tavern session for any criticism that might be possible to give.

DETAILS FOR SENIOR BALL COMPLETED

Names Of Chaperones Are Announced Today By Committee

Chairman Ervin Stadler says that all plans for the Senior Ball have been completed to their minutest details. The event, is scheduled for ten o'clock tomorrow evening at Maketewan. Dancing will be outdoors unless it rains in which case the clubhouse will be used.

Either winter or spring formal dress will be perfectly in order when Michael Hauer and his Orchestra begin the music. Hauer features, in addition to a band which has made several recordings for Gennet during the past year, such attractions as Lou Shoozee in his comic numbers and Miss Rosemary Dillon whose solo "Night and Day" was lately featured in the floor show at the Hotel Miami in Dayton.

Chaperones for the event have been announced. They are Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Teveluwe, Dr. and Mrs. W. Furst, Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Cash, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Geoghegan, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Gilligan.

Admission will be by ticket only. They can still be procured from any member of Chairman Stadler's committee among whom are Louis Ginochio, Paul Ahern, Frank Mercurio, Louis Groeninger, Henry Schoo, and Daniel Corbett.

"Other details as favors, decorations, and appropriate music have been so arranged as to meet the approval of all," said the committee head yesterday.

SODALITY ELECTION AROUSES DIFFICULTY

Cappel Elected Prefect But All Other Selections Are Still In Doubt

Just before going to press the following were given as the results of the ballots cast for the Sodality Officers:

Prefect, Robert Cappel; First Prefect, Robert Helmick; Second Prefect, William Sontag; Secretary, Cliff Lange; Treasurer, James Moriarty; Sacristans, Anthony Schmieg and William Young.

Last Friday the election of Sodality Officers took place in room 47 in the Biology Building. But the question of the day is: "Who was elected and who was not?"

Only this much is certain, Robert Cappel, is Prefect, or First Prefect, having won the election over Messrs. Ryan and O'Hare. Cappel received 28 votes, and Ryan, his closest rival, received 27 votes.

According to the Sodality's Constitution, the election of the Second Prefect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Sacristan is to take place on one ballot. The person with the highest number of votes would be Second Prefect.

Now here is where the difficulty comes in. Some units of the Sodality list their officers as Prefect, First Prefect, Second Prefect, Secretary, etc., having three Prefects. Our unit listed its officers as Prefect, Second Prefect, etc., having only two Prefects.

Now the question comes up, "Is Cappel to be called Prefect, with First and Second Prefects under him, or is he First Prefect with only the Second Prefect under him?"

After this question is settled, another difficulty presents itself. Which of the following men are to take office, and what office are they to hold? Of the thirteen candidates nominated, Helmick, Lange, Sontag, Moriarty, Schmieg and Young polled the highest number of votes respectively. Lange and Sontag tied with ten votes each, as did also Moriarty and Schmieg with eight votes each. Young is the only junior in the list and, under a clause of the constitution, said to decree that only a junior may be first and second prefects, he may be expected to assume an office.

THERMOMETERS ARE RAPIDLY ASCENDING

Freshman-Sophomore Committee Donates $25 To Raffle; Total Now $200

Going up! The red coloring in the two thermometers on the bulletin board in Science Hall, representing the returns of the sales of chances on Father Welfie's panther skin, is slowly climbing upward as the third week of the raffle sales draws to a close.

On the thermometer showing the University returns, the mercury read $143.00 on Tuesday afternoon. On the other representing the total amount sold by the University and sources outside the school, the reading was $200.00.

Father Welfie urges all students to make returns on their books as soon as possible. Students may return their money and books to Mrs. McGrath in the Registrar's office or to Father Welfie, or to members of the ticket sale committee. The goal of $300.00 for the University alone, will be easily reached if everyone who has taken out a book of chances sells it.

Fr. Welfie asks all to do their best towards making the raffle a success, since the money is to go to such a worthy cause as the Jesuit Missions in India.

The sophomores and freshman classes of the University, through their respective Presidents, Thomas Schmidt and Charles Duffy, contributed $25.00, the proceeds of the recent Freshman-Sophomore Hop, to the raffle fund. This display of generosity was highly commended by Father Welfie who thanked the classes for their cooperative spirit.

The panther skin, which is a fine specimen, will be raffled June 2. All ticket returns must be made before this day.

XAVIER ATHENAEUM TO APPEAR THIS WEEK

The spring issue of the Xavier Athenaeum has gone to press, and will be published this week. Contributions include: Verse by Frank Brearton; Essays by Ervin Stadler and James Wagner; and Stories by Frank Brearton and Clifford Lange.

Frank Brearton, '33, former editor-in-chief of the "Xaverian News," is editor of the Xavier Athenaeum.

No Results

The Peace Poll sponsored by the NEWS was called off by the Dean. He gave as his reason the failure of NEWS heads to secure his permission to take the vote.

GINOCCHIO IS CLASS ORATOR FOR EXERCISES

Busy Five Days Before Seniors; Both Alumni And Alumnae Sponsor Events

Louis Ginochio has been selected from the senior class to deliver this year's valedictory address at the graduation exercises on Wednesday, June 7.

Ginochio, an A. B. student, has been extremely active throughout his four years. He is President of the Seniors, has been an active member of the Student Council for the past year, and was King of the 1933 Junior Prom.

Participating in debating during his four years, Ginochio placed an alternate in the Verkamp Debate, the public debate of the Philopedian Society, in 1931. This year he secured for himself a position on the debating team taking part in three intercollegiate contests.

Program Of Week Announced
The five days immediately preceding graduation are to be busy ones for the graduates and their friends according to information originating in the President's office.

Festivities are scheduled to open on Saturday, June 3, with the reception of the class of 1933 into the Alumni Association. Elaborate plans for competition between alumni and graduates have been scheduled for that day with committees of alumni working diligently to make the occasion memorable for every one of the new "batch-elsors."

The graduates will rest up over Sunday, June 4, while prospective freshmen are inspecting the campus with its mental and physical facilities. On Monday, however, they resume activity when they stage an entertainment of their own during the evening.

At 1:30 P. M. on Tuesday, Baccalaureate Services will be started at St. Xavier Church on Seventh and Sycamore. On Wednesday the Alumnae of the university will hold a tea for the women graduates in the Union House.

Then comes the big event. Further details of the graduation proper are being perfected and next week's edition of the News will carry them all.

BOAT RIDE ON OHIO TUESDAY EVENING

Island Queen Will Leave Wharf At 8 P. M. On All-Xavier Trip

On Tuesday evening, May 23, the Queen of the Ohio will be the goal for every true Xaverian. To the strains of "Old Xavier For Aye" from the calliope, with Blue and White colors flying from the decks of the glass-enclosed Island Queen, thousands of Xavier College men, High school students, Graduates, Faculty members, and Alumni will wend their ways to the Ohio for an evening of real entertainment.

Dancing will begin about 7:30, and the boat will leave the wharf at about 8 P. M. Cards will be played by persons not wishing to engage in the latest collegiate steps.

Ticket returns are to be made by today. Cash should be turned in to those from whom tickets have been obtained. Student Council members have charge of distributing the tickets for the University. For every five sold at 55c, one is given free to Xavier students.

THE NEWS' PROGRAM FOR A GREATER XAVIER

A Straightforward and Frank Publication of Facts.
A Greater and Stronger Alumni Association:
Better Inter-departmental Co-operation.

Try It—

Year after year Xavier heads the list of universities and colleges when the total of points for both the intercollegiate English and Latin contests are totaled. Each one of the five men who placed in the first ten in each contest ("five" because one man placed in both contests) must be praised. This year above all should congratulations go to the English Contest participants for their dogged pluck in wading through the intricacies of a subject which not only was uninspiring, but also was discouraging and distasteful.

The idea of winning first in the total although capturing that position in neither of the individual contests seems symbolical of the type of education received here. There is nothing flashy about it but you certainly get something from the curriculum of studies, activities, a few squabbles or fights, and smoothing them out.

Anytime you reach the conclusion that you are not deriving profit from your attendance, ask an alumnus what he thinks about his education and you'll be reassured. You might try asking one anyway as an experiment.

Editorials—

Reading through the various college and university newspapers which are exchanged for our News, we came upon an interesting item in one of them. It stated that starting with its next issue there would be no more editorials. The reason given was that the editors' opinions were no better than the opinion of any other student at that university.

Now this is interesting. Of course everyone is entitled to his or her opinion, whatever it might be. But it is not true that the editors' opinions are no better than the opinions of any of the students. The various editors of the News know, see and feel the various cross sections of the university better than those students who do not occupy the same position as they. The editors can see, because of their close association with the various founts of news, the reason for many of the things that happen at a university. When an editor writes about a certain topic, he writes, not because he cares to see his own opinions in print, but because he is anxious for the welfare and advancement of the student body, despite accusations to the contrary.

It is only when editors permit their emotions to overrun and kill what would be otherwise logical thinking does the statement hold that the editors' opinions are no better than the opinions of the students.

But there is another side to the question. When an editor writes upon something about which he knows very little—except what he reads in the daily newspapers—such as economics or literature, his opinion is not as good as the opinions of many of the students who have thoroughly specialized in that special subject. The accusing statement that one who is specializing in a certain subject is liable to become prejudiced in favor of that topic does not hold. One who is interested in a subject enough to fight in its favor can not be said to be prejudiced in its favor. For prejudice consists in coming to a definite conclusion without thinking.

We can say that editorials should be written by the editors only on things about which they are well acquainted. Discussion on topics other than those with which they are well acquainted should be left alone.

The Dante Club—

Last Sunday evening the Xavier University Dante Club ended an unusually successful season with a lecture at St. Mary's Hospital. Throughout the present school year the club gave twenty-two different performances before as many different audiences. Too much credit cannot be given to Charles Donovan, genial president of the club, who devoted unbelievable amounts of time and effort in the interests of its success.

The Dante Club is little heard of about the school but it performs a very great service outside the walls. It spreads beneficial ideas about Xavier University into many remote corners where they would not otherwise penetrate. It spreads beneficial ideas about Catholic art and literature into places where they will do a great deal of good.

For the past twelve years the Dante Club has been a constantly growing and improving organization. New lectures are being constantly developed. We extend therefore, to Charles Donovan, for his invaluable services, our hand, in a simultaneous gesture of warm congratulation and reluctant farewell, and we express the wish that in the next year, the Dante Club will carry on as energetically, as vitally, as successfully, as ever.

Arts and Letters

Edward A. Doering

The season of the great orchestras of the radio, like that of our own symphony, is just about finished. There is, however, one last episode before we regretfully ring down the final curtain. This is the closing concert of a series being given by the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra on Sunday nights at ten-thirty. For this farewell concert of the season an all-Tschaikowski program has been arranged. It will feature a performance of his Symphony No. 5, in E minor. The remainder of the program has not as yet been announced but any all-Tschaikowski group will be awaited with pleasurable anticipation by most lovers of fine music.

This being another dull week in Cincinnati so far as the theater and other forms of cultural entertainment is concerned there will undoubtedly be many of us with a bit of spare time on our hands. There can be no better way of disposing of this than by visiting the Cincinnati Art Museum.

Of particular interest at the museum at this time is the 1933 International Exhibit, as assembled by the College Art Association, which is being shown for a few weeks. This large exhibit is displaying the very latest examples of modern painting gathered from all over the earth and though we ourselves do not give the modern style in painting our complete approval we nevertheless believe that a presentation such as this ought not be neglected.

Of special local interest is the display of the original cartoons for the mosaics and murals of our new terminal which are also being exhibited at the museum.

Those in quest of reading matter will welcome the new essay by Christopher Dawson called "The Modern Dilemma." In this work Mr. Dawson discusses the condition of Western Civilization and its prospects for continued existence and he gives as the only hope for its future a re-establishment of the moral and intellectual authority which has been so decidedly on the wane since the days of Reformation.

There is a rather startling and very satisfactory editorial in the May issue of The American Review on the question of "The Revival of Monarchy." In it the author has what we consider the most correctly expounded opinions on the theory of government that has ever been our pleasure to read and we believe that you too will find it well worth while.

ALUMNI NEWS

Three Xavierians will be ordained to the priesthood on June 25, by His Excellency Francis Johannes, Bishop of Leavenworth, at the Immaculate Chapel in the Jesuit Seminary at St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kansas. These are: John F. Byrnes, S. J., Class of 1920, who will celebrate his first solemn Mass on June 28, at St. Anne's Convent, Melbourne, Ky.; Daniel B. Cronin, Class of 1923, who will celebrate his first solemn Mass at St. Mary's Church, Chillicothe, Ohio, July 2; and Bernard J. Wuellner, S. J., who entered the Jesuit Novitiate directly from Xavier High School, and who will sing his first Mass at St. Mark's Church, Evanston, on July 2.

With these Xavierians is being ordained Mr. Charles Saldanha, S. J., East Indian, who was on the Lecture Series of the Alumni Association in 1930.

Committees named recently by the Cincinnati Bar Association include: Committee on Investigation: Edward P. Mouligner, '37, chairman; Edwin G. Becker, '21; Walter A. Ryan, Jr., '27; Committee on Membership: Lawrence H. Kyte, '21.

Thomas P. Bunker and Miss Mary Jane Gates were united in marriage on Saturday, May 13.

Mrs. Bunker is an alumna of the Summit. Tom was a student manager of the Musketeers, took part in the Passion Plays, and was a member of the Prom Committee, during his undergraduate days.

Francis H. Kearns, graduate of the Xavier College of Arts, and the Harvard Law School, was re-appointed assistant attorney general by Attorney General John W. Bricker, of Ohio. He held a similar post under former Attorney General Gilbert Bettman.

Send a student to Xavier next fall. Your best opportunity to do this work is right now. The high school graduate is making his decision about the coming year now and it is your duty to aid those of your acquaintance. As mentioned elsewhere in the NEWS, campus inspection day will be Sunday, June 4th. A program of special interest to prospective students is being arranged.

Direct a young man to Xavier on that day to see what facilities await him on both sides of the campus. You can do a further work by giving his name to the Director of University Promotion, Rev. Robert E. Manning, S. J.

"Your face and your habits of thought reveal the training you have received here at Xavier University, and in the business world men expect more of you because of this training," Albert D. Cash, President of the Alumni Association told the members of the Senior Class in his talk last Wednesday.

Commenting on the advantages of the Alumni Association to the individual he said: "You will find that all other ties made after you leave school will have inherent weaknesses. The ties made during your four years here have a strength that no adversity can break. Joining in the work of the Alumni will be a natural association for you. Difference in age will be wiped out in a few months, and you will feel the happy fellowship that unites the oldest Alumnus with the youngest."

To The Editor

May 13, 1933

Mr. Editor:

The Student Council appreciates and thanks you for the space in the X News donated to the announcement of the new honorary activity society. We would further appreciate it if you would denote a few more lines to an explanation of the reason for the choice of the name and the significance behind the Society.

Sword and Plume was chosen as the name because both the sword and the plume were part of the accoutrement of the old Musketeers and as here employed they serve to carry out the Musketeer motif.

Sword conveys the thought of the bright point of curricular and extra-curricular aggressiveness. Component parts of the sword, such as the point, carries the idea of the prod of personal participation. The stout blade of academic consistency. The guard against fickleness of endeavor. The hilt, firmly grasped and ever alert to the defense of the oppressed or to succor of any well-established cause.

Plume carries the connotation of the meritorious banner of achievement. The proud and merited emblem of a brave Musketeer. The unsullied record of participation in things Xavierian.

Sincerely,

Harry A. Landenwich,
Student Council '33.

You don't have to wait 'till Spiring to "graft".

In his plural self, Otto has been about town over this past week end. From the way the Xaverians have been doing things up at the "show" places, it seems that Herr Roosevelt's "New Deal" is beginning to have some effect.

For out at the Rendezvous there were many Xaverites. Carl Tuke and a Hepta frau were thoroughly enjoying themselves, at least Uncle Carl was.

Bud Ragland and his Mary were there too.

Moellering—the greater—and Hosty were there. Moellering was soling it enjoying himself immensely. Hosty was with a girl in a maroon dress.

Jim Byrnes and Aunt Del were there. They're going to the Senior Ball, too.

John Finn and his date were there too. We thought we knew her but from the look we got when we smiled "weuns" have at last decided that we never met her.

Dick Kearney and Sadie were at Sadie's school of learning dance. And mentioning Kearney if you want his Slavic distemper to awaken from its dormant state just say to him "Yoo Hoo Sadie." Besides them Ferd Clemens and Sein Damen had a good time.

Reminiscing a bit your correspondent wonders what happened to all his 'earers located at various places around and in Cincinnati.

Again the News makes good. For didn't Paulibus Barrett come out on top in the Philop debate Monday? Verily he didst.

Besides the News making good so is Jupiter Pluvius. Frank Burns backs us up on this statement. He states in a philosophical manner that King Pluvius hasn't failed to visit us at least once a day for the last forty-three (43) days.

Fall out of a machine while it is going or do a ring-around-the-rosy, at dances "Glory Hound" Waldron is always doing something. One day at noon the man spilt a plate of spuds, brown gravy and pork roast down the front of him. Bob Beuter said that if he wasn't cutting the porker as though it were a cannibal the accident would have never happened.

Talk about a man going without sleep: Ferd (I had my picture in the paper) Clemens broke his endurance record of going without sleep for days by falling asleep in class and coming too only after Joe Smith and a friend shook him five minutes after the bell had clanged out its good news.

Word now comes that Lou Flanigan was suddenly interrupted while he and his frau were sitting in a machine out in Westwood. There were about four or five Xaverians who interrupted the two while they were "just talking." But one of those who happened upon the two said "they don't talk that way." Flanigan is still "crimsoning."

Ask Bill Moore, alias Mas the Dip, what it was that was sent to him in an envelope the other day. Rough guys, dese Saturday-nighters.

They say that the little fellow who played in Xavier III's band last Friday night was only a Freshman and that his name was Jack. Regardless what grade he was in that little man knew how to handle his kettle-drums. Ask anyone who was at the concert; they'll say the same thing.

At Connecticut State suggestions have been voiced that students demand half the royalties on their examination paper answers, which are sold to humor publications.

ALUMNI-GRADUATE DINNER TO BE HELD

Plans For All Day Program Are Being Arranged By Committee

Joseph A. Verkamp, chairman of the committee arranging the speaking program for the Alumni-Graduates dinner, Saturday, June 3, has announced that a speaker of note will be secured.

Albert D. Cash, president of the Association, will act as toastmaster. Individual introductions for the graduating seniors are being prepared and each man will receive personal recognition on that evening. This part of the all day program will be held in Elett Dining Hall. Seniors will be guests of the Alumni Association.

Dr. William J. Topmoeller is arranging the field day program for the afternoon in which seniors will be pitted against the Alumni in a number of athletic events. Aiding Dr. Topmoeller on the program are James J. Grogan, Louis J. Tuke, and William V. Schmiedeke. All the facilities of the field house and athletic fields will be put into use.

Shades of Hamlet—with a brown derby. William Shakespeare and Al Smith are members of the freshman football squad at Notre Dame.

REMEMBER YOUR MOTHER FR. PERNIN COUNSELS

The cause of the sudden flood of out-going letters from Xavier University last Thursday and Friday can be traced to the inspiring sermon given to the students by Reverend Father Claude Pernin, S. J., Department of English.

Father Pernin reminded the men of Mother's Day and urged them to honor the greatest mother in the world—their own mother—with a letter, written straight from the heart, or at least with a card.

They Satisfy

.. all you could ask for!

Just two words...

Yes, I have heard about two words; and now and then three words—but "They Satisfy" means "To gratify fully."

Why do these two words "they satisfy" fit Chesterfield Cigarettes? Because Chesterfield Cigarettes are milder. Because Chesterfield Cigarettes taste better.

Chesterfield's way of blending and cross-blending fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos brings out better flavor and aroma.

They Satisfy!

NATION'S STATION TO FEATURE CLEF CLUB

Popular Classical Program To Be Presented Over WLW
Sunday Morning

Having to their credit a successful concert at the St. Gregory's Seminary last Saturday evening at Mt. Washington, the Xavier University Clef Club entertained the members and friends of the Booklovers Association of the University.

Kenny Jordan, '34, and Joseph Link, Jr., '35, entertained the students at St. Gregory's. Kenny's "Mother Macree" won for him an encore for "Moon Song."

The program began at 3:00 P. M., and was held in the Mary Lodge Reading Room of the University, under the auspices of the Mothers Circle. A record crowd was present and the Club received thunders of applause from their intellectual and music-appreciative audience.

With these two concerts of the past week, successfully managed, Mr. John Castellini will lead his boys to WLW, the NATION'S STATION of the Crosley Radio Corporation for one of their most popular broadcasts of the year. The broadcast is scheduled for Sunday morning, May 21, from 12:00 to 12:30 E. S. T.

Rehearsals for the Club are now being held on Sunday afternoons and Tuesday evenings. Popular classical compositions with new arrangements have been substituted and the Clef Club at present has a repertoire and program which any College Glee Club would be proud of.

Final preparations are now being made by the Spring Formal Committee in arranging all details for the Clef Club Final Concert and Dance, to be held at the Hotel Gibson Ballroom on Friday evening, May 26. Tickets for the concert are now on sale and can be obtained from any member of the Clef Club for 25c.

Two bids will be given by each member of the Club and the dance following the concert is closed for Clef Club members and their friends.

PHILOPS COMPLETE DEBATING SEASON

Decision Favors Guarantee Of Bank Deposits By Government

The Philopedian Society, holding its last debate of the present school year, Monday, May 15, discussed the subject, "Resolved that there should be supervision of all banks by the federal government, with a guarantee of bank deposits." The affirmative side of the argument was presented by Messrs. Nieman and Barrett, with Shaw and Driedame upholding the negative.

Nieman of the affirmative spoke first. He presented the case of his side, basing his plea upon the weakness of the present banking system. He asserted that without federal supervision there would be a continuance of the bank failures which are imperiling the economic life of the country. Mr. Shaw spoke first for the negative team. He attempted to refute the arguments advanced by the first speaker in his assertions that federal supervision would retard the return to prosperity which we are now experiencing. As an additional argument he stated that federal supervision could not have a sufficient elasticity to meet the varying conditions which exist in a country as vast as the United States.

The affirmative again took the floor as Barrett offered a plan of bank insurance for the guarantee of deposits. Such a course, he averred was a necessity if the credit of the country was to exist in troubled, as well as prosperous times.

The final constructive speech was delivered by Driedame, in behalf of the negative. This debater advanced many arguments against the affirmative viewpoint, stressing both the impracticability of the plan, and its unethical viewpoint.

The rebuttals which followed were concerned chiefly with a reiteration of the points already advanced. The critic judge, Mr. Koester then rendered his decision. The affirmative team was given the victory and Mr. Barrett was named the best speaker.

The moderator, Father Manning, thereupon, gave a criticism of the debate, and discussed the qualities and fallings displayed by each of the speakers. He again spoke of the new rating system which was to be inaugurated in judging aspirants for the debating team, and stated that in the debate just completed, he had made use of the system for the first time.

So says a Logician: "More people have died from drinking tuberculosis milk than from drinking whiskey, but I do not therefore wish to prohibit cows."
